

Membership Quit Claim Request

To transfer the stockholder's name to another household member

Please note: Mississippi Market's bylaws specifically prohibit transferring a membership to another household. This form is used for changing the name on a membership from the original stockholder's name to another household name, such as to reflect the primary household grocery shopper or in the case of divorce or separation. If requesting a stockholder change in the event of a member-owner's death, the executor of the estate or beneficiary may complete the form.

Date:
